Un vell record

The musical score is written for guitar in the key of A major (three sharps) and 6/8 time. It begins with the tempo marking 'Lento' and the dynamic 'mp'. The first system includes a 'C2' fretting instruction. The second system features a 'har.8°' instruction. The third system is marked 'mf'. The fourth system is marked 'f'. The score consists of six systems of music, each with a treble clef and a key signature of three sharps. The music is characterized by a slow, melodic line with various fingerings and a steady bass accompaniment. The final system concludes with a double bar line and a fermata over the final chord.
